John and I went through it last night, he had concerns, but at the end of our talks we worked out the logic behind the revenue sharing.

I hope this closes today too, hard lessons have been learned for sure. If we sign today, it's basically as though we are getting a $750,000 salary each for 2019.

Do you have a recommendation for an attorney that can setup a trust for me?

Thanks!

They also went back to the split in customers (new vs. existing) and calculations for revenue, and , even disputes to be handled in Delaware.
I assume all their changes were acceptable then?

Hopefully this will close today.
